Dedication

To the devoted man whose personal interest in research has set others more firmly in their fields of endeavor;

To the calm, unassuming man whose day is always busy, yet who unfailingly finds a moment for the student;

To the interested man whose photography is a link between the past and present of Longwood College for the students;

To this man, DR. ROBERT T. BRUMFIELD, we proudly dedicate the 1961 VIRGINIAN.

DR. ROBERT T. BRUMFIELD

Foreword

In building for the future, we will always remember and rely on the foundations we are making today. Longwood College is an outstanding provider of many of our building blocks for tomorrow. The professors, the classes, the students, and the activities within these halls of learning form a living part of today and a memorable part of days to come.

We, the 1961 VIRGINIAN staff, have attempted to prepare tangible evidence in this yearbook of those intangible qualities and memories which become the hopes and bases of our future.

Associations with our fellow students offer us understanding and lasting friendships that we will ever cherish in the days to come.

OFFICERS

PAT SOUTHWORTH .....	President
PEGGY BLACKWELL .....	Vice-President
SUE GOSNELL .....	Secretary
BARBARA BOLSTER .....	Treasurer
JUDY HARRIS .....	Historian
MRS. KATHLEEN G. COVER .....	Advisor

It seems like a very long time ago that we drove up to the Rotunda for the first time and greeted our new classmates with shyness and hesitation. The years since then have passed quickly and we have many wonderful memories of circuses, productions, and dances to cherish forever. Our deep sense of class loyalty and sincere friendship will remain with us and grow through the years, although a touch of sadness will be mingled with the excitement of our graduation. We will always remember our senior year for it has truly been a full one; each classmate has put a little extra effort into each activity, knowing it was being done for the last time this year.

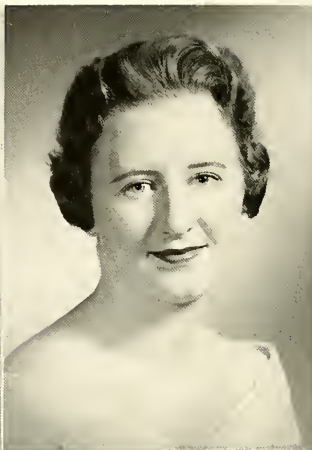

We are all eager for graduation day, but none of us will ever forget Longwood College, our sings, parties, and picnics, our faculty, friends, and our very much beloved Mrs. Cover. We will say goodbye to our college life but the memories of it will go with us and be cherished always.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The VIRGINIAN staff wishes to express its gratitude to the following people who have assisted with the 1961 edition of the yearbook:

Miss Virginia Bedford, general advisor, and Mr. J. H. Wamsley, business advisor, for their guidance and assistance throughout the year.

Mr. Foster B. Gresham, literary advisor, for his valuable suggestions.

The staff for their many hours of work that they have contributed to the publication of this book.

Mr. F. M. Gentry and Gentry Studio for their excellent photography and efficient service.

Mr. M. L. Glover and Roanoke Engraving Company for their assistance and suggestions pertaining to layout, art work, and engravings.

Mr. W. L. Burton and C. W. Warthen Company for their advice and for printing the yearbook.

To June Carolyn Elliott, editor of the 1962 VIRGINIAN, and Mary Leach Elmore, business manager, we wish much success in their work.

MARY LEE WARRINER, Editor-in-Chief

MARTHA GRAY SHIRLEY, Business Manager
